DISPUTE ENDS IN STABBING

A Tallahassee man was arrested charged with Aggravated Battery and Criminal Mischief after a reported altercation.

Shortly before 2:00 AM this date, Leon County Sheriff's Deputies were called to investigate a disturbance in the area of 1300 Yons Place off Isabelle Drive. Upon arrival deputies found a subject walking in the area that was bleeding from his head and chest. The subject reported that he and his roommate were arguing and his roommate began destroying things in their residence. The subject said that during the incident his roommate smashed a beer bottle over his head, beat him about his head with a guitar and stabbed his upper chest with a sharp metal rod.

The subject was transported to a local emergency room where he was last listed in serious but stable condition.

Deputies located the alleged attacker in the back yard of the residence where the incident occurred. The alleged attacker, identified as Angelo Gaudio, 25, was arrested on scene. During subsequent interviews Gaudio admitted to the altercation.

Sheriff Larry Campbell said, "Domestic violence takes many forms. The old thinking that a husband beating his wife is domestic violence is out of date. Rich, poor, all races and genders are susceptible to domestic violence. It (domestic violence) is not a family problem, it's a community issue".

Angelo Gaudio was booked in to the Leon County Jail charged with Domestic Violence Aggravated Battery and Criminal Mischief.
