Detectives Charge Man in Fraud Investigation

During December of 2011, Leon County Sheriff's Financial Crimes Detectives arrested Robert G. Feiss after a fraud investigation involving the Chaires Capitola Little League. During that investigation, detectives located information and evidence that indicated Feiss may have been responsible for committing additional acts of fraud.

Detectives continued to investigate financial statements and conduct interviews into suspicious activity which confirmed Feiss had sold several fictitious certificates of deposit since 2010. Detectives have confirmed that a 94 year old man purchased $224,000.00 worth of fictitious bank CD's from Feiss. A couple in their seventies purchased $500,000.00 worth of the fictitious bank CD's. Feiss deposited these large amounts of money into the Chaires Capitola Little League account and then would write personal checks to himself or transfer the money elsewhere.

Sheriff Larry Campbell stated, "I'm glad the detectives continued to work diligently as this investigation progressed, but we are all deeply saddened to learn that one man could have taken so much from our senior citizens."
