Wanted Person Caught

Tallahassee- On January 30th, deputies from the Leon County Sheriff's Office and members from the North Florida Violent Fugitive Task Force arrested James Wells who they had been searching for since Monday.

On Monday, January 28th, the Leon County Sheriff's Office received a teletype from Indian River County stating that James Wells may be in Leon County and that he was wanted for Robbery and Felony Battery which occurred in their county.

This lead was passed on to the Fugitive Task Force who began an investigation. The Task Force Members tracked him to his place of employment where he was arrested without incident. James Wells is currently being held at the Leon County Jail.

The Violent Fugitive Task Force is comprised of members from the Leon County Sheriff's Office, U.S. Marshals, FDLE and the Tallahassee Police Department.
