Corrections Officer Arrested

Tallahassee- Corrections Officer Dexter Williams was fired and subsequently arrested after an on-going investigation revealed that he was responsible for the introduction of contraband into the Leon County Detention Facility.

This investigation started several months ago after discovering that cellular phones were getting into the jail. Detectives from the Leon County Sheriff's Office were able to track the source of this illegal activity to Dexter Williams.

Dexter Williams is charged with Introduction of Contraband Into a Detention Facility.

Sheriff Campbell said- "I have absolutely no tolerance for this type of behavior and I will do everything within my power to root it out. Anyone found participating in this type of behavior will be dealt with severely which I believe sends a strong message to others who may be tempted to violate the law and the policies of this agency".
