Update: Deputies and Volunteers Searching for Evidence in Miccosukee

Today Leon County Sheriff's Deputies and volunteers, comprised of family and friends of Danielle Brown, will continue to search for Danielle or any evidence related to her disappearance in the Miccosukee Community. Detectives have compiled a list of items which are being sought during the search for Danielle. These items include Vehicle Information Number (VIN) Plates or VIN Sticker ending with numbers 9740, Florida license Plate 694YBX and a maroon colored vehicle arm rest. These items were removed from Danielle's vehicle which was discovered in Pavo, Georgia. Other items of interest include property which Danielle may have had in her possession; a purple Boost Mobile cell phone, a key ring with a teddy bear and other trinkets, a brown and gold purse with Coach brand emblems, a brown and beige wallet with Coach brand emblems, South Pole brand jeans, yellow shirt and designer high heel sneakers.

Anyone who locates any of the listed items or who has any information about the disappearance of Danielle Brown, is asked to contact the Leon County Sheriff's Office at (850) 922-3300. Tips may also be provided through the LCSO web page at www.leoncountytso.com
