LCSO Conducting Attempted Murder Investigation

Today at approximately 2:15p.m., Conor McBride (DOB: 12/12/1990) entered the Tallahassee Police Department lobby and advised that he had killed his girlfriend at 124 Mill Branch Road, which is in Leon County outside of the City of Tallahassee. Leon County Sheriff's Deputies, along with TPD, responded to the residence and located Ann M. Grosmaire (DOB: 03/05/1991) inside. Grosmaire was alive, but unresponsive, and was transported to Tallahassee Memorial Hospital for treatment of a life-threatening gunshot wound.

McBride was turned over to Leon County Sheriff's Office Violent Crimes Detectives who are in the process of interviewing him and processing the crime scene. Grosmaire remains in critical condition.
