Man Shoots Himself after Attempting to Kill His Girlfriend

On Monday, March 28, 2011 a woman walked into the Leon County Sheriff's Office and reported that she had been held against her will by her live-in boyfriend, who had also tried to kill her. According to the report, Crystal Grant, 30, was involved in an argument with Ronald C. Fox, 33.

Fox became enraged when Grant asked him to leave their residence in the 1400 block of East Lafayette Street. Detectives believe that Fox choked Grant until she lost consciousness for an unknown period of time. When Grant regained consciousness, Fox was standing over her talking about killing her. Fox also prevented Grant from leaving the home until this morning, when she was able to talk him into letting her leave to go to work.

Detectives obtained arrest warrants and a search warrant for the residence today. At approximately 3:30 p.m. detectives served the search warrant at the residence. During the time they were securing the residence, detectives encountered Fox in a bedroom. Fox produced a handgun and shot himself in front of the detectives.

Detective David Farcas, who is also a paramedic, immediately rendered emergency aid to Fox. Leon County EMS and the Tallahassee Fire Department responded to the scene and continued life-saving techniques. Fox was transported to Tallahassee Memorial Hospital where he is in critical condition.

When well enough to be discharged, Fox will be taken to the Leon County Jail.
