Man Arrested After Firing Shot at Neighbor

Today at approximately 11:00AM, the Leon County Sheriff's Office received a phone call from Robert Mark Wilson, who resides in the 4100 Block of Stag Run Court. Wilson reported he was having a dispute with his neighbor and that he had armed himself with a firearm. As Sheriff's Deputies responded, the Leon County Sheriff's Office received another phone call from a subject who reported hearing Wilson arguing with his neighbor and the sound of a gunshot. When Deputies arrived they learned that Wilson had fired a gunshot at the victim during a verbal altercation. The victim was not struck, however the bullet fired by Wilson entered a near by occupied residence. No one was injured in the residence.

Deputies recovered a .38 caliber Smith and Wesson revolver which was used by Wilson to shoot at the victim. Wilson was arrested and booked into the Leon County Jail. Wilson is charged with aggravated assault with a deadly weapon, for shooting at his neighbor, and shooting into an occupied dwelling.
