Update: Leon County Jail Inmate Dies

Today at approximately 1:30 p.m., Leon County Jail inmate Calvin Torres DOB 06/21/1980 was being escorted from Jail Pod "B" to the medical unit for court ordered DNA testing. While in the area of the jail atrium and center control center, Torres experienced a medical emergency and lost consciousness. Jail medical staff administered CPR and utilized an Automated External Defibrillator in an attempt to resuscitate Torres. Leon County Emergency Medical Services transported Torres to Tallahassee Memorial Hospital where he was pronounced deceased at 2:10 p.m.

Torres had been an inmate at the Leon County Jail since October 25, 2007, when his bond was retracted from an October 4, 2007, arrest for Sale or Possession of cocaine within 1000 feet of a church, Possession of Cannabis and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia. The cause of death is under investigation and an autopsy will be conducted tomorrow morning at 9:00a.m., however initial indications appear Torres died of natural causes.
