Pizza Delivery Driver Robbed

Early this morning at approximately 12:00AM, a pizza delivery driver for Hungry Howies reported being robbed after making a delivery in the 1700 block of Clear Cloud Court. The victim reported while driving out of the area she was blocked in on Nissley Road by a black ford truck. According to the victim, the truck pulled in front of her vehicle, forcing her to stop. The victim advised a white male was driving the truck while two other white males jumped out of the truck bed and confronted the victim at the driver and passenger side of the vehicle, both armed with handguns. The suspects were wearing black shirts, black shorts and leg stockings over their heads. The suspect at the driver's side door pointed a handgun at the victim and demanded money. After obtaining an undisclosed amount of cash, the suspects got back into the truck and backed out of Nissley Road. The suspect vehicle was last seen heading west on Blountstown highway.
