Deputy Stops to Help Motorist Finds Concealed Firearm and Drugs

Early this morning at approximately 1:45AM, Deputy Chris Jacobs observed a silver Pontiac passenger car parked on the side of Capital Circle Southwest. Deputy Jacobs stopped to check on the driver, Greg L. Green, who advised he had run out of gas. As Deputy Jacobs talked to Green, he noticed his eyes were bloodshot and he was unsteady on his feet. A driver's license check revealed Green did not have a valid driver's license. Green stated his brother had been driving and went to get gas, but he owned the vehicle. With the consent of Green, Deputy Jacobs searched the vehicle and located two small crack cocaine rocks in the center console and a .25 caliber pistol under the driver's seat, where Green had been sitting. When asked if he had any other contraband, Green said he had a small amount of marijuana in his left front pocket. When Green's brother returned with gas, he stated Greg Green was the driver of the vehicle.
