Teen on Probation for Carrying Concealed Firearm Arrested for Possession of Marijuana with Intent to Sell

Last night at approximately 9:30PM, Deputy Joshua Evans was patrolling the area of 3535 Roberts Ave. when he observed three subjects walking in the roadway. One of the subjects was later identified as 15yoa Devin Landers. When Landers noticed Deputy Evans, he walked into a wooded area in an effort to hide from the deputy. When approached by Deputy Evans, Landers identified himself with a false name and consented to a search of his pockets. As Deputy Evans searched Landers, he noticed a strong odor of marijuana emitting from his clothes. During the search a large bag of marijuana was found in Landers' right side pants pocket. The marijuana was packaged in a plastic bag that contained five small bags and one medium size bag. Landers explained he sells marijuana to make money and that the street value of the small bags are $10 and the large bag was worth $20. While being transported to the Juvenile Assessment Center Landers admitted to giving a false name and identified himself as Devin J. Landers DOB: 05/03/1993. Landers is currently on probation for Carrying a Concealed Firearm
