Texas Issued Amber Alert Missing Child Recovered by LCSO

Today an Amber Alert was issued for a one-year old taken from Denton County, Texas. The Justin Police Department issued the Amber Alert for Malakai Izaak Mascorro who went missing Tuesday night from his home in Justin, Tx. Justin Police suspected the child was taken by his father, Jose David Mascorro, who does not have custodial rights for the child. The suspect was last seen driving a Grey 2008 Dodge Magnum with Texas license plate BB6K357. Justin Police reported the suspect may have been armed with two 9mm pistols.

This evening at approximately 6:20PM, Leon County Sheriff's Office Sgt. Larry Folsom was on I-10 when he observed the suspect vehicle traveling east bound. Deputies stopped the vehicle on I-10, just east of Mahan Drive, and arrested Jose Masscarro without incident. The child was recovered unharmed. Leon County Sheriff's Detectives are in contact with Texas law enforcement officials and arraignments are being made to return the child to his mother. Jose Masscarro will be booked into the Leon County Jail.
