Sexual Predator Arrested

The Leon County Sheriff's Office has arrested a sexual predator after confirming that he went onto the campus of Lincoln High School to contact a fourteen year old student. On Wednesday, September 14, 2011, School Resource Deputy Michael Halligan received information that a designated sexual predator may have been on the Lincoln High School Campus on Tuesday, September 13, 2011.

Deputy Halligan and Sgt. Steve Norville of the Sexual Offender Unit interviewed the student and learned that Michael Dasinger, 31, had been sending the student sexually motivated text messages. Deputies and detectives also confirmed that Dasinger had in fact been on the Lincoln High campus three days earlier and did in fact make contact with the student.

Dasinger is on probation and is not allowed to be on a school campus. He is also not allowed to have any contact with children under 18. Deputies arrested Dasinger at his residence located at 1305 Pullen Road this afternoon and charged him with violating the terms of his probation in reference to the original charge of Lewd and Lascivious Act on a Child under 12.
