Home Invasion Robbery

Southern Leon County- Just after 7:00 AM Tuesday Morning the Leon County Sheriff's Office was called to a home in the 4600 Block of Martha Drive reference a home invasion robbery.

The victims told deputies they were awoken this morning just before 7:00 AM by two subjects kicking down their door. The male victim went to investigate and was confronted by the two subjects. A struggle ensued and during the altercation the subjects fired several shots, none of which hit the victim. The victim said the subjects fled the residence immediately following the shooting. Nothing was taken in the incident.

The victim described the subjects as black males.

"We encourage the public to immediately call law enforcement if you suspect someone is breaking into your home before confronting the subject(s) yourself. In this case we are lucky the victim was not hurt or killed." said Sgt. Chris Chase, LCSO spokesman.

Anyone with information is asked to call the Robbery Task Force at 891-4200 or Crime Stoppers at 574-TIPS.
