Missing Child Recovered

Tallahassee- The Sheriff's Office received information from the Panama City Police Department that Sasha Stoops was recovered.

At some time late Sunday night the Panama City Police Department located Miss Stoops who reportedly fled from them. She was eventually caught and taken into custody on our pick up order. The police department also said that Miss Stoops is being held on separate charges from their agency.

For any additional information regarding the circumstances surrounding Miss Stoops recovery or the additional charges, please contact the Panama City Police Department.

Sgt. Rob Reisinger stated that: "The Sheriff's Office would like to thank the Panama City Police for their diligence in recovering Miss Stoops as well as our friends in the media and the community who always work together to get the word out in situations such as these".
