Update: Last Suspect Arrested in Early Morning Home Invasion Robbery

This evening at approximately 10:30pm, Gregory Pratt contacted the Leon County Sheriff's Office and was interviewed by Violent Crimes Detectives. Pratt was named a person of interest in the early morning home invasion robbery at a residence in the 1300 block of Burgess Drive. During this investigation it was learned that Travis Williams, Maurice Bowers and Gregory Pratt believed the residence contained a large amount of cash and they conspired to commit a home invasion robbery. The suspects forced entry to the residence through the backdoor and confronted the occupants, Kennedy Greene and a 30-year-old female. The suspects beat Greene and searched the residence for cash. After locating a few hundred dollars the suspects attempted to flee the area in a black Chevrolet Impala but crashed into a ditch at the intersection of Burgess Drive and Parklawn Drive.

There is no indication there was a fourth suspect, as first reported, or that Greene was abducted or forced to leave the residence after the robbery. Detectives remain concerned that Greene may have been injured due to blood found inside the residence and the unknown circumstances in which a gunshot was fired. Violent Crimes Detectives ask anybody with information as to the whereabouts of Greene to contact the Leon County Sheriff's Office at (850) 922-3300.
