Convicted Felons Arrested During Traffic Stop for Carrying Concealed Firearms

Early this morning, Wednesday June 4, 2008, Deputy Rob Wright conducted a traffic stop of a vehicle which was speeding in the area of Mahan Drive and Hawks Landing Road. During the traffic stop, Deputy Wright observed the handle of a concealed firearm underneath the front passenger seat. A criminal history check of the driver, Antwan Thomas 07/08/1983, and his two passengers, Jeffery Myers 03/24/1977 and Travon Adams 10/19/1984, revealed they were all convicted felons. In Florida, convicted felons may not own or possess a firearm.

During a search of the vehicle two loaded handguns were located underneath the front passenger seat and were in easy reach of all the occupants. One of the handguns discovered was a Glock .40 caliber which had been reported as stolen to the Tallahassee Police Department. Also a small amount of marijuana was located under the driver seat. While being booked into the Leon County Jail, Jeffery Myers was found to be in possession of additional marijuana.
