Cops recruit Lobsters for Help

On Friday March 21, 2008 Leon County Sheriff's Deputies will be doing more than patrolling the streets. They will be replacing patrol cars and radios with serving trays and menus for the annual Tip-A-Cop event at the Red Lobster Restaurant on North Monroe Street. All this to benefit Leon County Special Olympics. Sheriff Larry Campbell and volunteers from the Leon County Sheriff's Office will be serving patrons in hopes of collecting tips for Special Olympics. For over a decade the Sheriff's Office has hosted this event raising thousands of dollars to benefit the more than 400 athletes here in Leon County. This year's event will start with lunch at 11:00a.m. - 2:00p.m. and dinner from 5:30p.m. - 10:30p.m.

Sheriff Campbell said "when you see how much it means to these athletes to compete in the Special Olympics, you can't help but be humbled at the opportunity to serve and help".

So, come out for some good food and a good time as we work together to help these very special athletes.
