Deputies Arrest Man for Robbery

On Thursday, June 10, 2010 Leon County Deputies responded to the Parkway Food and Gas Mart at 9512 Apalachee Parkway in reference to a robbery. When deputies arrived, they learned that Ezra McKenzie, 47, had gone to the store to retrieve his paycheck. McKenzie became angry over the amount of his check and attacked the clerk. McKenzie reportedly began threatening the clerk and he gave McKenzie more money in an attempt to get him to leave. Instead, McKenzie tried to hit the clerk with a bottle. When this attempt failed, McKenzie grabbed the clerk and tried to pull him across the counter near the register. The clerk managed to get away and gave McKenzie more money, still trying to get him to leave. McKenzie then went behind the counter himself and removed money from the register. This incident was captured on the store's video surveillance system and also witnessed by customers.

Deputies located McKenzie at the Capital Inn on Apalachee Parkway and interviewed him. McKenzie admitted to his involvement in this incident. He was arrested and transported to the Leon County Jail.

The clerk was not seriously injured.
