LCSO Solves Recent Eastside Burglaries

Over the past few weeks Leon County Sheriff's Office Burglary Detectives have been aggressively investigating several commercial burglaries on the eastside of Tallahassee and Leon County. During the investigation, David Tucker became a suspect of the recent burglaries to Mom and Dad's Restaurant at 4175 Apalachee Parkway, Jenny's Lunch Box at 295 Magnolia Drive, Bradley's Country Store and The Nutty Diva both located at 10655 Centerville Road. In most of these burglaries, large quantities of meat were stolen. Tips provided information that Tucker had recently been seen selling meat from the back of a stolen Blue GMC Suburban in the Chaires Community.

Last night Tucker was located in the stolen vehicle by Deputy Mike Punausua and arrested for grand theft auto and outstanding warrants from Florida and Georgia. Once in custody, Burglary Detective Ted Phillips interviewed Tucker, who confessed to these burglaries.

Tucker is also suspected in other burglaries and detectives are still actively pursuing leads, which may result in additional charges.
