Update: Missing Child Located

10 year old Dalton Kuhn has been located. Dalton was last seen at 8:00am this morning leaving his home in the 3200 block of Dungarvan Drive. Dalton was wearing white and teal colored shorts and a teal colored shirt. He was riding a brand new black BMX style bicycle and was wearing a black bike helmet. He was riding his bicycle to Roberts Elementary School, but never arrived.

An extensive search was initiated by law enforcement and school officials in the area. Leon County School Superintendant Jackie Pons was assisting with the search and located Dalton near the intersection of Beaumont Drive and Chelmsford Road.

Sheriff Larry Campbell stated, "Thanks to all law enforcement officers, school officials, teachers, parents and concerned citizens who joined in this search. This shows what our community can accomplish when we come together. Today, our quality of life has been positively affected by our cooperation and concern for the safety of a child."
