Update: Third Person Arrested in Drug Investigation

On Wednesday, July 07, 2010 the Leon County Sheriff's Office arrested two women at 304 Ridge Road in reference to an ongoing crack cocaine investigation. Call in complaints from concerned citizens in the area provided information to the Vice Unit about ongoing drug activity at the residence. Undercover detectives conducted surveillance and purchased crack cocaine from the location which led to a search warrant for the property.

Vice detectives arrested Jacqueline D. Isom, 38, and Gertrude H. Callaway, 51, and charged them in connection with the investigation. Detectives recovered firearms, stolen property which was traded for drugs, paraphernalia and crack cocaine.

Vice detectives made contact with Jimmy L. Jackson, 42, on Thursday, July 08, 2010 and arrested him in reference to his involvement in this case also.
