UPDATE

Late Friday night, the Leon County Sheriff's Office received information that a potential homicide occurred earlier in the week. LCSO began an investigation into the potential homicide.

Saturday morning, the investigation led deputies to a residence in the 200 block of Pond Pine Street, off of Blountstown Highway. After obtaining a search warrant, detectives located unidentified human remains, that have now been preliminarily identified as those of an adult male. Luis Olla-Hernandez is charged with Murder in the 1st Degree in connection with the case.

This investigation remains active and ongoing.
