Inmate Dies at Local Hospital

On Friday, March 11, an inmate housed at the Leon County Detention Facility died at a local hospital.

The inmate, 54-year-old James Reed, was transported to the hospital on Thursday, March 3, after corrections officers found him unresponsive in his cell. No foul play is suspected.

Reed was booked into LCDF on January 8, 2022, by the Leon County Sheriff's Office on burglary charges.

LCSO'S Violent Crime Unit is investigating the incident, as standard procedure for any death that occurs while in custody. As part of the investigation an autopsy by the medical examiner's office will be scheduled.

DECEASED: James Reed

DOB: 05/29/1967
