LCSO is Looking for Deputy, Correctional Officer, and Civilian Employees of the Year Nominations 2017-2018

The Leon County Sheriff's Office Citizen's Academy Alumni Association announces the annual "Leon County Deputy of the Year Award" and "Leon County Correctional Officer of the Year Award" to be presented to an outstanding Deputy and Correctional Officer each year.

This year the CAAA has added a new category, "Leon County Sheriff's Office Civilian Employee of the Year."

The intent of the awards is to recognize a Deputy, Correctional Officer, and civilian employee that has been identified by a citizen for their outstanding service to the community.

Anyone can nominate a Deputy, Correctional Officer, or civilian employee for outstanding service performed in Leon County during the time period of September 1, 2017 through December 1, 2018. The only requirement is the event had to take place in Leon County. You do not have to be a Leon County resident to make a nomination.

LCSO employees serve Leon County in so many ways every day. Nominations can be for anything from a lifesaving event to an above and beyond level of professionalism, even community involvement.

Please use the attached nomination form to submit your nomination. Nominations must be postmarked no later than January 18, 2019.

The award will consist of a cash award and engraved plaque. The award information will be announced at a later date.
