LCSO Arrests One after Shooting in Domestic Dispute

Just after 6 p.m. last night, Leon County Sheriff's deputies responded to a 911 call in 8800 block of Sapphire Drive. Once deputies arrived on scene they found 20 year old Andrew Lawyer III suffering from a gunshot wound.

Information given to deputies on scene indicate Lawyer and his father, 49 year old Andrew Lawyer II, were involved in a domestic dispute and during the course of the argument, the father shot his son.

LCSO deputies also learned Lawyer II's wife was standing directly behind her son when he was shot.

Andrew Lawyer III was transported to the hospital for treatment.

Through the investigation, detectives were able to obtain probable cause for the arrest of Andrew Lawyer II.
