LCSO Arrests One in Weekend Shooting

Sunday morning, July 7, 2019, Leon County Sheriff's Deputies responded to a shooting at a nightclub in the 1800 block of Fairbanks Ferry Road. When deputies arrived on scene, all involved parties had left the area.

The victim, 30-year-old Cheryl Moore, was located later at a local hospital suffering from a single, non-life threatening gunshot wound. Currently, Moore is in stable condition at a local hospital.

While deputies were at the scene witnesses described the black female suspect and her vehicle. A short time later the vehicle was located on Capital Circle NW.

Detectives interviewed the occupants and arrested 25-year-old Brittany Alexander and taken to the Leon County Detention Facility.
