LCSO Chief of Detention Resigns After Administrative Investigation

Leon County Sheriff's Office Chief of Detention Jeff Beasley resigned today after the conclusion of an administrative investigation regarding failure to follow policy in dealing with a personnel matter.

Beasley joined LCSO in 2017 and served as Chief of Investigations prior to moving to the Detention Facility last year.

Sheriff Walt McNeil accepted Beasley's resignation, effective immediately.

"Although Chief Beasley accomplished several important initiatives during his tenure with LCSO, we have policies and procedures that must be followed. Leadership is expected to set an example for others and everyone is held accountable for their actions," said Sheriff McNeil.
