Deputies responded to the residence and located a victim suffering from life-threatening injuries. The injuries would prove to be fatal, and the victim was pronounced deceased on scene. LCSO Violent Crimes and Crime Scene units responded to the scene and assumed the investigation.

During the investigation, detectives learned the victim and the suspect, 36-year-old Christopher Harvey, were co-habitants at the Cathedral Drive residence and had been arguing in the early hours of the day before deputies were called to the address.
