LCSO Investigates Plane Crash

On Tuesday, December 7, at approximately 7:59 a.m. the Leon County Sheriff's office was notified of a possible aircraft crash in the Tram Road area off Capital Circle SE.

Deputies responded to the area and located the aircraft on private property off Tram Rd. The aircraft was occupied by one person, the pilot, who reported mechanical issues and was able to make an emergency landing. The pilot was transported to a local hospital for evaluation with minor injuries.

The National Transportation Safety Board (NTSB) and the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) will be investigating the cause of the incident.
