LCSO Investigating Death at Detention Facility

On November 1, 2020, at around 6:35 P.M., deputies working in the Leon County Detention Facility located an inmate, 43-year-old Little Daniel Owens, unresponsive inside his cell. Life saving measures were attempted, but Owens was pronounced deceased shortly after.

Owens was in his cell alone. There is no foul play suspected at this time.

Owens had been incarcerated in the LCDF since February 27, 2019 on a homicide charge.

As protocol with in-custody deaths, the Florida Department of Law Enforcement has been called in to assist with this active investigation.

Deceased: Little Daniel Owens

AGE: 43
