Narcotics Investigation Nets Drugs and Weapon Arrest

Earlier this month, the Leon County Sheriff's Office Narcotics Unit, with assistance from the LCSO SPIDER (Special Projects Investigations Detection Enforcement Response) Unit, executed a search warrant at a residence in the 2100 block of Golf Terrace Drive concluding a narcotics investigation lasting several months.

During the search of the residence, deputies located 32.8 grams of cocaine, a loaded 40 caliber handgun and numerous items of drug paraphernalia which is indicative of narcotics sales. As a result of the search warrant, 35-year-old Octavius Rumph was taken into custody. Rumph is a multiple-time convicted felon with prior firearms related offenses and currently on state probation for prior narcotics related offenses.

Rumph was arrested and transported to the Leon County Detention Facility.
