Seat Belt Violation Yields Multiple Guns and Arrests

On June 15, 2020, LCSO deputies witnessed a white Nissan exit a business in the 3200 block of North Monroe Street. Deputies observed the front passenger of the vehicle, 30-year-old Calvin Thompson, not wearing his seat belt. A traffic stop was conducted, and deputies made contact with Thompson and the driver of the vehicle, 30-year-old Nadeonte Howard.

During the traffic stop, consent was given to search the vehicle. Upon searching the vehicle, deputies located a loaded .40 caliber magazine underneath the driver's side floor mat and a loaded Glock .40 caliber handgun containing a .40 caliber extended magazine in the rear left floorboard. Alongside the Glock handgun was another .40 caliber magazine. Deputies also found a fanny pack containing a .380 Diamond Back handgun with an altered serial number, one loose .380 round, and a loaded .380 magazine. Further investigation yielded another bag containing numerous plastic baggies, two packages of multiple dime size baggies, and a tied plastic baggie containing a green leafy substance.

Thompson admitted to owning the fanny pack and the items inside, specifically the .380 Diamond Back handgun.

Both subjects were confirmed to be convicted felons.
